Dear Healthcare Compliance Packaging Council,

I would like to extend my greatest gratitude for your generosity in awarding me the Healthcare Compliance Packaging Council Scholarship. Having received this scholarship for the second time is very encouraging due to your continued support. Currently working in the medical industry I have been blessed to be around such caring individuals. I'm excited to return to school for the spring semester and plan on doing some intensive research with Dr. Bix focused around some hot topics currently being explored for medical packaging applications. I can not express enough how appreciative I am of the funds you have supported me with. Being able to reduce my payments of student loans will allow me to expedite the process to success so that I can give back to future students in a similar fashion. Thank you very much for your continued support to both the school of packaging at Michigan State but also the direct encouragement to my future.

Sincerely,

Doug Furgason

My name is Alison Schuitema, and I am a sophomore in the School of Packaging at Michigan State University. I am so honored to be a recipient of the Healthcare Compliance Packaging Council Scholarship for 2010.

I recently changed my major to Packaging, and I don't think I've ever made a better decision. Michigan State has a top-notch Packaging program and I can't wait to continue my education in this field. In the future, I hope to pursue a career in medical packaging - it would be an incredibly rewarding career to be able to help patients through the packaging of the medicines and medical tools that are used every day.

I am currently working to find an internship in the field of medical packaging. Although internships are very competitive, I'm confident that Michigan State has prepared me well and will continue to assist me as I continue my search - now and in the future.

Your generous gift will go so far towards my education in Packaging, and I cannot thank you enough for helping me. I am so grateful for your support. There are countless ways that your gift will assist me as I continue my educational and professional career. Thank you!

Sincerely,

Alison Schuitema
